t: 0629777636 e: teganscottrose@gmail.com a: Houtmankade 64/2, 1013MZ Amsterdam

A creative thinker and problem solver currently focussed on an exciting career change into Software Development and looking to leverage industry experience.

Possessing a wealth of knowledge and skills gathered in creative and challenging fields at locations across the globe, my flexibility, adaptability, and ability to embrace new environments and information with curiosity, delight, and vigour is my superpower.

A passionate and diligent life-long-learner keen to help find and build solutions to improve the world and how we interact with it. Big fan of the Oxford Comma.
